Mock Trial

What is it?

Mock Trial is both a club and a class. This allows students to earn 3 credits while learning about a case, acting as attorneys and witnesses, and learning courtroom procedures. AND IT'S FUN!! Students compete against teams from other schools, with a chance to win individual and team awards at tournaments.

What are the benefits?

Mock Trial is not limited to students studying Law. The team is composed of people from a wide variety of majors including Biology, Business, English, History, JMC, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology. Not only does mock trial enable students to gain public speaking experience, but it teaches them to think on their feet while having fun with a close group of students. If you are thinking of law as a career or you just enjoy the thrill of competition, Mock Trial is for you!

Whether you are a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, if you are interested in joining Mock Trial, sign up for Philosophy 324 this fall semester. For more information about Mock Trial, contact faculty advisor, Dr. Steven Nuttall, or Mock Trial President, James W. Cook.
